

Donor Privacy Policy

The Main Line Animal Rescue is committed to respecting the privacy of its donors. The organization has developed this Donor Privacy Policy to assure donors that their personal information will not be sold or rented to, or exchanged with, any third party.

No Sale, Rent, or Exchange of Personal Information. The Main Line Animal Rescue does not sell, rent, or exchange donors' personal information. The Main Line Animal Rescue uses donors' personal information for its internal purposes only, to advance the charitable mission and activities of the Main Line Animal Rescue.

Publication of Names. On occasion, the Main Line Animal Rescue lists the names of its donors on its website or other publications. Donors may contact the Main Line Animal Rescue to request that they not be included in such lists.

Removing Donors' Names from Main Line Animal Rescue's Mailing List. It is the Main Line Animal Rescue's desire not to send unwanted mail to its donors. Donors may contact the Main Line Animal Rescue if they wish to be removed from its mailing list.

Contacting Main Line Animal Rescue. Donors who have comments or questions about the Main Line Animal Rescue's Donor Privacy Policy may contact the PSPCA Development Team at 215-426-6300 or development@pspca.org.

Updated September 14, 2021